

1. Shuru-Up acts solely as a service provider offering lead generation support between prospective buyers and sellers through a fully integrated software platform designed to facilitate transactions involving private equity or unlisted securities between users and third parties. It does not serve as a marketplace and is mainly intended to aid in the transactions inside its integrated framework. Shuru-Up shall bear no responsibility or liability for any financial loss, damage, or other harm sustained by any user or affiliated party arising from or in connection with the use of the platform or reliance on any information provided therein. In the event that Shuru-Up fails to deliver the services as contractually agreed, the client shall be entitled to a full refund of the fees paid for the undelivered services, which shall be processed within seven (7) business days from the date on which the client provides written notice of such non-performance.
2. Shuru-Up is neither a stock exchange, nor does it aspire to be recognized as one under the Securities Contracts Regulation Act 1956. The securities made available through this platform are not listed on any recognized or regulated stock exchange. Shuru-Up does not function as an investment advisory service and does not provide investment recommendations or solicitations. Accordingly, Shuru-Up does not hold, nor is it required to obtain, any registration, license, or authorization from the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), or any other regulatory authority within India. Users and prospective investors are expressly advised to evaluate all information independently and assume full responsibility for any investment decisions made, including all associated risks.
3. Investors are solely responsible for conducting their own due diligence prior to making any investment decisions related to private equity or unlisted securities. They are strongly advised to thoroughly examine all relevant offering documents and seek independent advice from their own legal, tax, ERISA, and financial advisors as deemed appropriate. The information made available by Shuru-Up through its platform is not intended to constitute, nor should it be relied upon as, the primary basis for any investment decision. Although Shuru-Up reasonably believes the information provided to be accurate and reliable, it expressly disclaims any representations or warranties, express or implied, as to the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of such information. Investing in private markets and securities entails inherent risks, including the possibility of financial loss, and previous performance is not a reliable predictor of future results. No content on this website/application should be understood as personalized investment advice, nor should it be considered legal, financial, or any other type of professional advice.
4. The content is provided strictly for general informational purposes and is intended solely to assist recipients in determining whether to undertake further due diligence with respect to the referenced investment funds. This material does not constitute, and shall not be construed as, an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any securities. Any such offer or solicitation shall be made exclusively through the distribution of formal offering documents, which may include, without limitation, a confidential offering memorandum, a limited liability company operating agreement, and related materials. These additional information and material disclosures, including detailed descriptions of investment risks, which are essential for any prospective investor to consider prior to making an investment decision.

5. Investment in the Funds involves significant inherent risks, including, but not limited to, the risk of a complete loss of the capital invested. Any performance data or figures presented herein are preliminary in nature, based on incomplete or unaudited information, and are therefore subject to revision. Final, audited performance results may differ materially from the estimates provided. Due to the characteristics of the underlying portfolio companies in which the Funds may invest, such investments should be considered highly speculative, volatile, and appropriate only for investors who can bear a high degree of financial risk.
6. In the case of private equity and unlisted securities, a mandatory confirmation window of two (2) hours on working days (i.e., market days) shall apply following the investor's completion of due diligence and the initiation of a transaction through the "Buy" function. This confirmation period is required to verify, validate, and finalize all transaction details prior to execution and remains subject to the availability of the securities and completion of all necessary checks.
7. In the event of any delay in the share transfer process, or if Shuru-Up is unable to deliver the agreed-upon services within the specified timeline, the client shall be entitled to a refund of the funds paid. Such refund shall be processed within seven (7) business days from the date on which Shuru-Up receives written notice from the client regarding the non-performance or delay.

Investments are subject to market risks, read all the investments related documents carefully. Investors are requested to review the documents carefully and obtain expert professional advice with regard to specific legal, tax and financial implications of the investment/participation in the scheme.

While all efforts have been taken to make this web site as authentic as possible, please refer to the Disclaimer, privacy policy, terms of use, risk disclosure before making any investments. We will not be responsible for any loss to any person/entity caused by any short-coming, defect or inaccuracy inadvertently or otherwise crept in the scheme.